Camera Club Catches the Unwary Student

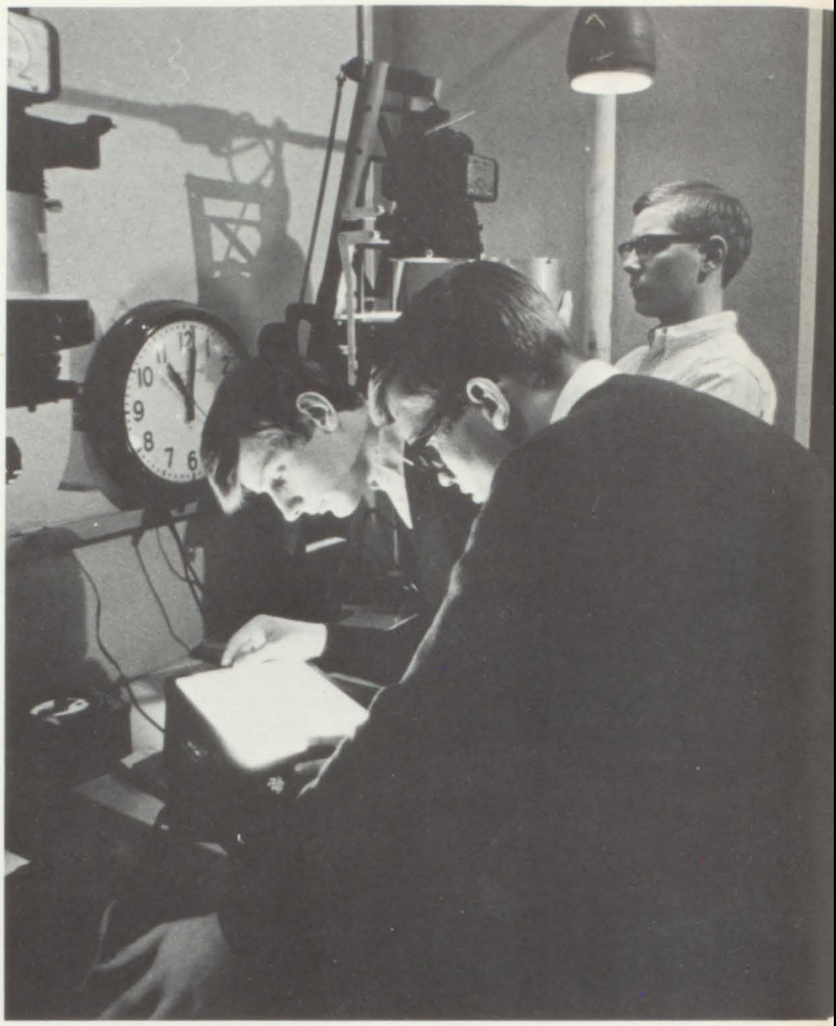
SOPHOMORE SHUTTERBUGS DEBBIE Stone and Carita Stevens attend an evening Camera Club session to learn the art of picture taking.



CAMERA CLUB OFFICERS in their natural habitat, the dark room, are, FRONT TO BACK, Dave Downing, secretary-treasurer; Jim Prestor, vice-president; Jim Brenneke, president.

TAKING STILL LIFE picture needs much time and patience according to Tom Kimble, Jim Prester, and Dave Downing.

Most essential to Rock Island High School's publication department was the Camera Club. The members probed the halls for candid shots of Rocky students as they were. Quite frequently they were called to handle special assignments such as athletes, cheerleaders, and assembly guests. Everyday the darkroom was occupied by a member who studied new techniques for printing and development.

The Camera Club and the Science and Electronics Club joined to form the Science Council. In order to pay for new cameras, film, and other equipment the Council worked in concession stands at the basketball and football games. At one meeting the Club decided to invest in a bulletin board on which pictures that were not used by WATCHTOWER and CRIMSON CRIER could be hung.

HOT POPCORN, A favorite of all the fans at Rocky games, was the biggest project of the Science and Electronics Club.

Members of the Science and Electronics Club had a rocket launching. This was one of many knowledgeable programs including speakers and movies on archeology and nature study. Club members, in conjunction with Camera Club, took charge of most football and basketball concessions. Members were encouraged to try for entry in the Quint City Science Fair. Yearly dues in the Club were fifty-cents.

Members of the Rock Island High School Camera club joined with the Science Club to form the Science Council. The Science Council offered enjoyable and educational meetings for all students. They went on nature tours and visited Argonne National Laboratory located near Chicago. The Science Council purchased a telescope and did much star watching. They did various things such as launching homemade rockets from the front campus. Science Council was also in charge of the basketball concession stand.

The Pep Band livened up the school spirit, coordinated their music with the cheers, and made the visiting teams feel at home.

The Dance Band, in their dark red blazers and shiny brass instruments, added to the "swing" of Rocky's Homecoming and exchange assemblies. The members of this band were chosen from tryouts.

ALL OF THE RIHS bands kept abreast with the ever changing field of music by being introduced to the new music brought back from a band leader's convention, held in Chicago last fall, attended by area band leaders including Rocky's Mr. Donald Kruzan.

Senior Glee Sings and "Swings" This Year

The Senior Glee Club's year was highlighted with a February trip to Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa to participate in a choir festival with nine other high schools. Also in February Mr. Osborn listened to approximately 60 sophomore and junior students try out for 1968-69 Senior Glee Club. Of these 60 students, 40 were chosen to fill the vacancies left by graduating members. The Club has an established number of members which varies according to school enrollment. The Senior Glee Club met sixth period each day, and, along with other music groups, carolled in the halls of Rocky on the last day of school before Christmas vacation. They performed in the December and May concerts.

The goals of the Senior Glee Club were to improve the members' musical abilities through training in tone quality, breath support, rhythm, diction and reading. In April the second musical in recent years was performed. "Guys and Dolls" was open to any of Mr. Murray Osborn's music classes, and required two months of after school rehearsals. Senior Glee were decked out in their new robes this year, giving their old ones to Girl's Glee.

Girls' Glee Club met fifth period every day in the chorus room of the director, Mr. Murray Osborn. Singing was a pleasure as current songs as well as standard repetoires were introduced to the strictly female class. Girls' Glee was open to any junior or senior girl who liked to sing and wanted to use their voice to the best advantage. Registration at the opening of school was a requirement. Complete uniforms were available for Girls' Glee this year, their having inherited the robes formerly worn by Senior Glee members.

Girls' Glee participated in the Christmas concert and caroled in the halls. Several of the members tried out for the spring musical "Guys and Dolls."

Chamber Choir stepped up their momentum this year with new rust colored blazers, and fast moving selections. The choir sang in Exchange Assemblies, working with the new stage band. Hauberg Civic center was the scene of their May Concert. They met second period with Mr. Murray Osborn.

Orchestra Practices with Band Members

ORCHESTRA CLUB MEMBERS stay alert, even at early morning rehearsals.

The music the Orchestra played this year ranged from classical to Latin American. The four concerts presented by the Orchestra were in December, February, April, and May. The Orchestra also took part in the spring musical, "Guys and Dolls," presented by the music department.

Many new programs were initiated by Orchestra this year. The February concert was a combined effort of the seventh hour music classes. The Sophomore Chorus took part in this concert. It featured a special brass and woodwind chorus.

Because of enlarged facilities it was possible for the band members to meet with the Orchestra for practice. Another program initiated was the members of three out of the four Junior High Schools, Washington, Central and Franklin were able to practice with the High School Orchestra after school. This gave the Junior High School students valuable experience.

Spring featured a "String Festival," including members of Orchestra from the Tri-Cities. Approximately two-hundred members played. The Rock Island High School Orchestra toured the Junior Highs this spring, playing the repertoire of their concerts.

The Club's purpose was to criticize original poems and essays written by its members, discuss a selected literary work, and put out the Literary Club magazine Quandary, which was published in the spring with the cooperation of the Art Department and the Camera Club. Sponsors of the Literary Criticism Section were Mr. James Martin and Miss Marsha Lyons. Other sponsors were Mr. Frank Fessler and Mrs. Kay Cederoth, who was in charge of the Creative Writing Section.

The Club had about twenty interested members, and anyone was eligible to join in the vibrant discussions on literary works.

Rocky's Ski Club Makes Fresh Tracks

LEADERS OF THE newly formed Ski Club, Glenn Hunter and Lee Nelson, prepare "to take to the slope" on their first skiing trip to Chestnut Hills.

The purpose of the newly formed Ski Club was twofold: to promote interest and participation in the fastest growing sport in the country and to give non-skiers an opportunity to find out the fun that could be drawn from the sport.

Preliminary plans of the Ski Club included several trips to Chestnut Hills, near Galena, Illinois. Faculty sponsors for Rocky's newest Club were Mrs. Margaret Pierce and Mr. James Peterson.

The organizational meeting of the Pan American League was held on the fourth Wednesday of September in the activity room. A hoped for international cooperation guided the Pan Am League through the year. The Pan Am League helped Rocky students by promoting an interest and appreciation for the culture and language of Latin American and Spanish speaking countries. This year the club was fortunate to have one of the summer AFS students in the club. Laura Van Der Kamp showed slides of her summer in Spain at the October Pan Am meeting. The November meeting was highlighted by Spanish dancers and authentic Spanish food. In January the annual pinata party was held. Pinatas ranged from the usual mod types to those resembling vultures and other strange creatures.

Any Rocky student was eligible to join Pan American League even if he was not enrolled in a Spanish class. Although English was the main method of communication, Spanish was occasionally spoken.

The initial activity for German Club's 50 members was a picnic at Loud Thunder Preserve in October. A party and carolling by the Club marked the Yule season. In the spring the German Club took part in a food tasting party with other foreign language clubs. A new and exciting event for the club this year was a trip to the Amana Colonies for a dinner. The German Club was lucky this year to have Gisela Espelage and Wiebke Heitmann, both foreign exchange students from Germany. Gisela showed slides of Germany at the November meeting.

Near the beginning of French Club's season, skits and songs provided entertainment at the monthly meetings. These skits were presented in French to introduce members to the use of the language and relate French customs and culture.

In December, the club took part in hanging greens and French Christmas decorations on the bulletin board in the French room. A festive Mardi Gras Party was held after school in February. The highlight of the year was a trip to Chicago, where members visited various museums and later that evening ate dinner in a French cafe. The French Club activities were financed by dues and bake sales held in December and in March.

Hayrack Ride Leads Latin Club Activities

A QUICK BUSINESS MEETING is conducted by Latin Club officers before seeing a movie on Rome.

The Latin Club held many enjoyable activities this year. In the fall the Club sponsored a hayrack ride for members and guests. During the Christmas season, the Latin Club celebrated "Saturnalia," an old Roman celebration, where the members took part in the breaking of a piñata in the shape of a Trojan horse. In the spring the Latin Club participated in a food tasting party, and held its annual Roman banquet at which all of the members dressed in Roman costume.

FHA MEMBERS AND their advisor, Mrs. Florence Casten, listen to a guest speaker and learn the basics for running a smooth home.

October marked the organization of the FHA Club when officers were elected and dues of 35 cents a semester decided on. This club has no money-making projects and works entirely from dues. Mrs. Cervantes, Home Ec. instructor, talked of her work with the Quaker Oats Co. when she helped on developing new products. She also told the girls of her experience working for an airline.

In December the members enjoyed a Christmas party, fixing their own refreshments. There are, at present, 20 members. State FHA has disbanded; so next year, girls interested in sewing and cooking after regular school hours may join the "Home Economics Club."

Watchtower Staff Aims for Unique Book

The 1968 WATCHTOWER was a product of progress this year, as new techniques and ideas were incorporated in the make-up of the yearbook. Journalism underwent constant change in 1968, and the WATCHTOWER staff kept abreast by attending a summer journalism workshop, reading bulletins and literature pertinent to yearbook editing, observing other schools' yearbooks, and keeping in close touch with WATCHTOWER's Intercollegiate Press.

Penny Gorsuch, editor; Kathy Kepes, assistant editor; and Debbie Brasier, copy editor spent a week in June, 1967 attending the University of Iowa Journalism Workshop learning how to produce a superior yearbook. Through experience, the editors acquired the know-how for making page layouts, writing copy, organizing the coverage of material and what was to go on each page, learning shop talk related to printing styles and publishing techniques, and how to budget yearbook expenditures. At the end of the week Kathy Kepes received a certificate of high achievement in the yearbook division. The knowledge received at journalism school was passed on to the other senior members and junior assistants of the WATCHTOWER staff who pooled their efforts fourth period each school day, as well as many after school hours.

The purpose and singular goal of the entire yearbook staff: to prepare a complete journalistic account of a year's happenings, unified the divisions of the staff into smaller working units. Major decisions were made by the editor and assistant editor, but the opinions and new ideas of all staff members counted in the molding of WATCHTOWER.

With the theme of "Expansion" chosen by the staff at the end of the 1967 school year, the editor and assistant editor began the preparatory steps in the summer of 1967 continuing on to March, 1968. Each page of the yearbook was planned with foresight.

The twenty-two members of the fall Crimson Crier staff began the semester facing a financial deficit left from the previous year which threatened to drastically reduce the number and size of issues. In what often seemed a futile effort to keep the Crier alive, the young journalists combined their hard work and ingenuity in an astonishing exhibition of determination.

The group began their financial battle by agreeing to print on regular newsprint instead of the formerly-used book paper. Rates per inch on advertising were increased. Although both attempts were helpful to some extent, they were insufficient to provide the revenue necessary to continue publication.

To alleviate the money burden a Battle of the Bands was suggested. After much planning the Quint-City Combo Quake was held on September 30. The Girls' Gym rocked to five area bands and an attendance of 700 young people. The Quake was declared a success as it netted over $500 profit. More importantly, it bought new life for the Crier.

The fall Crimson Crier staff produced six issues. The advent of five columns showed the individuality of the staff members. "Folk Notes" dealt with various folk singers and their music. "Garment Bag" kept Rocky students up to date on fashion. Medical tips aimed towards teenagers were reviewed in "Dr. Sims Talks to Teens." "Leman's Ledger" gave a commentary on sports, while "Limey Laughs" commented on most anything in inimitable humor.

The fall Crier staff learned, as did their predecessors, that it took much more time and effort than the designated daily class period to produce a newspaper. The time escaped all too quickly, and it was with a tinge of regret, fond memories, and a slight bit of envy that they resigned their respective posts to the new spring staffs.

TOM KELLY AND Ed Hamming leave school for the Rotary luncheon.

Rock Island Rotary International sponsored Junior Rotarians from Rock Island High School for the fourth consecutive year. Eighteen Junior Rotarians are selected each year by the faculty for their leadership qualities and scholastic achievements. Two Junior Rotarians attended four Rotary luncheon meetings each month. These meetings were held at the Rock Island YWCA for the purpose of discussing a variety of business, such as Rotary sponsored scholarships, the presentation of a plaque to Mr. Seymour Golden for outstanding service to the community, and general discussions of world and local happenings. Frequently, guest speakers were featured at the meetings. The boys' attendance at Rotary meetings enabled them to have a better understanding of the purpose and value of their future civic responsibilities.

Key Club Promotes Civic Responsibility

The Key Club, a junior branch of the Kiwanis Club, stood as one of three service clubs for boys at Rocky. Meetings, presided over by senior president Greg Gillette, were held the first and third Tuesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the college reading room at High School.

Gaining membership was a combined process of teacher nomination, based on good grades and a well-rounded personality, as well as by election by existing members. Through the year, Club members carried out their purpose: the promotion of leadership and service to the community. New programs and fund raising ideas were introduced into the Club by Lee Nelson and John Mordhorst, who attended the National Kiwanis Convention in the summer at Louisville, Kentucky. Soap was collected in an annual drive for Dixon State Hospital, and the annual Kiwanis Carnival drew a record-breaking crowd. The selling of basketball programs and a "car-bash" were among the money raising activities which helped the Club net the proper amount of funds which were promised by Key Club for the aid of the community.

Nat'l Honor Society Is Rocky Brain Trust

The National Honor Society was founded in 1921 by the National Association of Secondary School Principals. There are more than 8,000 chapters throughout the United States, China, and South America. The chapter at Rock Island School was organized in 1937. The Society was organized for scholastic achievement, but throughout the years leadership, character, and service are also considered in the selection of membership.

There are 225 scholarships offered each year. Application is based on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test given in October. The semi-finalists are selected on the basis of these scores. The Scholarship Board considers individual grades, rank in class and service records. These scholarships may be used in any accredited university, college, or junior college in the United States.

Seniors, whose grade averages at the end of the seventh semester were 92 or above, were automatically eligible for membership. If grades are maintained, the students names are enrolled on the membership list.

JAMES BRENNEKE AND Duane Stevens, National Merit finalists, are the end product of the excellent educational opportunities offered in the Rock Island school system.

In conclusion of the awards banquet junior Rick Miers was elected as the 1968 team captain and junior Randy Entler was selected as the most improved player.

New Coach, "Stars" Highlight Grid Season

Under new Head Coach Gary Embretson the Rock Island Varsity football team bettered its previous two seasons with a 4-5 mark. High spirit and a "never say die" attitude enveloped this physically-small team throughout the season.

The Rocks, led by quarterback Ken Berg, second leading passer in Mississippi Valley play, first confronted the defending conference champs Cedar Rapids Jefferson and lost an extremely hard fought contest 19-0. In its second contest against Davenport West, Rocky exhibited a tough defense and Senior Tom Marcotte produced an outstanding running game for a 13-7 win. The Rocks again slipped into the loss column the following week against their city rival, the Alleman Pioneers. The Rocks, in the final two minutes of play and with the score tied at 6-6, were inside Alleman's 10 yard line when a fumble halted their drive. Alleman marched the entire length of the field in the final minute and capped their drive with a touchdown for a 13-6 win. The next two games upped the Islanders' mark to 3-2 when they defeated the Clinton River Kings 10-0 in the Homecoming tilt and shut out the East Moline Panthers 15-0. Rock Island next took on the powerhouse of the conference, the Moline Maroons. Moline's awesome offense and crushing defense inflicted upon Rock Island a 28-7 loss. The Islanders showed their high spirit in this game when they were able to rally and score in the final period. The next week paired Rock Island and Davenport Central in a quagmire. Again the Rocky gridders were unable to grab a victory despite a fine comeback in the second half. In this contest the Central Blue Devils ground out a 24-3 victory. The following week, the Rocks traveled to Cedar Rapids Washington and received a 41-7 trouncing. First half disasters contributed to the lop-sided score. Yet the Rocks forced the Warriors to use their first string in the second half when the Rocks came out of the dressing room to play ball.

The Rock Island Rocks concluded their season on the right foot by coming from behind to down the Little Hawks of Iowa City, 25-14.

During this year, his first, Coach Embretson initiated a "star system" whereby each week defensive or offensive standouts were awarded stars for their efforts. Coach Embretson hoped that this idea would give the players added incentive to do their best. It seemed to work as over twenty individuals won stars and several obtained more than one. Two of the many gridders who won stars acheived five stars: Dave Howell and George Hoane. As an added acknowledgment of their efforts, Howell and Hoane were elected co-captains of the '67 football squad.

Sophs Display Size and Speed; Finish 5-3

The Rock Island Sophomore football team led by Head Coach Merle Aller compiled a season's record of 5 wins and 3 losses. Coach Aller was assisted by Don Detaeye, line coach: Jerry Janecke, backfield coach; and Hugh Johnson, end and defensive line coach.

The Pebbles rolled off five consecutive victories and looked good enough to go undefeated. Key injuries set in, however, and left the Little Rocks reeling with three straight losses and a record of 5 and 3. In their opening game against Jefferson, the Pebbles outlasted the J-Hawks to record a 26-20 triumph. In their next four outings the Pebble defense allowed a mere 12 points. These wins included a win over West (40-0), East Moline (33-0), Alleman (13-6), and Clinton (7-6).

According to Aller, the West game was the best offensive display of the season, while the Panther win was the best defensive effort. The Pebbles' potent offensive attack combined the running of Lou Miskowicz and the passing of quarterback Rick Bevans. Bevans passed to his ends John Swift, Chuck Seyb, and Doug Stelling.

Despite their potent offense, it was their defense that won several contests for them. The defense was bolstered by an exceptional interior line. Some of the outstanding linemen were Ed Dye, Pat Quinlan, Mitch Hallet, Jim Harder, Chuck Seyb, and Steve Gordon.

Mr. Aller contributed their very successful year to the fact that this year's Pebbles were not only big and strong, but fast. The 5-3 record achieved by Mr. Aller's team was not a clear indication as to the real power of this team but it was nevertheless a fine achievement and a year to be proud of.

JOHN MORDHORST

For the tenth consecutive year Coach Bob Motz produced a fall tennis squad that captured the Quad-City title. The team, consisting of mostly lettermen, continued to be tops in the area posting a 5-0 record in doubles competition and a 4-0-1 slate in singles. The only blemish on the Rocks' record was 3-3 tie against the Moline Maroons.

Junior DeArmond Briggs continued in the number one position, while John Mordhorst provided a good backup man in the number two slot. Other members of the varsity squad who contributed to the fine season were seniors Bob Hotle, Bill Martin, Jim Brenneke, Duane Stevens, and junior Steve Flack.

In singles competition this fall the Rocks recorded four shutouts and the tie with Moline. In doubles play the Rocks shutout Alleman, East Moline, and Davenport West. To complete their undefeated season the Rocks stopped Moline and Davenport Central by a score of 2-1. At the Quad-city Conference match held at Rocky, John Mordhorst walked off with the singles' title to add more glitter to a very successful season.

Coach Motz's spring squad of 1967 was perhaps the strongest in recent years, as it compiled a perfect record in dual competition, with a 17-0 slate. The '67 netsters were again led by Briggs and Mordhorst but Tom LaDage, a senior, was at the top most of the season giving assistance to the top two. Senior Tom Conrad also helped the squad in the number six slot. Hotle and Martin were also instrumental in preserving the perfect record. This edition of the Rocky tennis team captured the Mississippi Valley crown, the Quad-City title, and first in district competition. They went on to cop a fifth place finish in the state meet held at Champaign in May.

The strength of this squad is unquestionable due to the fact that of their seventeen victories, thirteen were shutouts. Their domination over their opponents is evident in that they defeated Moline, East Moline, Rock Island Alleman, Davenport West, and Davenport Central each twice. Both the fall and spring squads of 1967 were highly successful with a total record of an astounding 26-0-1.

Returning letter winners for the Rocks were Chris Lorentzen, Ellie Herman, and Cathy Denecker. # Grapplers Achieve 12-7 Season Record

The 1967-68 Wrestling squad lost the state championship but had a very successful season nonetheless. Coach Chester Schultz's team finished the season in fine style winning 7 of their last 9 matches. Last year's state champion team had a season's record of 6-7; while this year's squad had a 12-7 slate. In tournament action the Rocks could do no better than third, finishing third in all four tournaments in which they participated. The Rocks finished third in the Quadrangular Meet, the Davenport Invitational, the state district, and the state sectional.

This year's squad was led by 180 pound Dan Bradley. Bradley ended the season with an excellent record of 25-2-1. Following Bradley was Jim Rich at 138. Rich compiled a 20-5-1 slate. Dick Work, in his first year of wrestling, compiled a 16-0-1 record to be the only Rocky wrestler to go undefeated. Other mainstays of the Rocky squad were Ezell Turner (15-7) at 112, Gary Hodge (14-8-1) at 156, and Jim McGee (16-5-1) at 165. McGee, Rich, Bradley, Hodge, and Rick Bevans represented the Rocks at the sectional meet but only Rich, Bradley, and Hodge could advance to the state meet. Of the 3 Rich was the only winner. At state Rich was the only Rocky grappler to win but he failed to reach the semi-finals.

Depth Big Problem in Rocks 6-5 Season

The Rock Island tankers polished off a fine season at the state meet where the Rocks finished 7th out of 125 teams. In finishing 7th the Rocks had 3 state champs. The 200 yd. medley relay team of Bill Schuster, Brice Anderson, Marc Gilliam, and Tom Chappell stroked to the state title in 1:40.8 well ahead of the rest of the field. As individuals Bill Schuster glided to an easy win in the 100 yd. backstroke; and Marc Gilliam, junior sensation, not only copped the state title but also broke the oldest record on the books in the 100 yd. butterfly.

In regular season meets the Rocks had several standouts but lacked depth in ending the season with a 6-5 slate. Sam Karon placed near the top in almost every meet in diving and Tom Chappell excelled in the 200 yd. individual medley and also in the 100 yd. breaststroke. Gilliam and Schuster on several occasions swam the 50 yd. freestyle finishing 1-2 with Gilliam tying the school record. Even though the Rocks lacked depth they were still able to beat Jefferson, 75-19, and Iowa City, 80-15, in their 2 biggest routs. Rocky depth, however led to 2 defeats by less than 4 points. It also forced the Rocks down to the wire in winning 2 others by less than 3. In all, the Rocks broke 4 school standards and 1 state title.

Shorty's "Hall of Fame" Dream Realized

The dream of Rock Island High School athletic director Mr. H.V. "Shorty" Almquist came true February 9th as Rocky's prep "Hall of Fame" was unveiled. The unveiling took place in the fieldhouse during halftime of the Rocky-Moline basketball game. Three "Hall of Fame" boards were planned, but only two were unveiled over the southeast and southwest entrances. The third will be added later.

The southeast board carries pictures of all of the twenty-two State champions in the history of Rocky. The southwest board contains pictures of the twenty-six "All-State" men, athletes who have been honored for excellence in team sports. Pictures of Rocky athletes who earned major letters in three different sports in one school year will eventually be on the third board.

The purpose of the "Hall of Fame" was to recognize and honor Rocky's great athletes, establish in the hearts of youth a motivating influence to excel in athletics, and to foster and preserve good sportsmanship, scholarship, and citizenship in our school, city, and community.

ROCKY BOYS TAKE time out before gym class to admire the "Hall of Fame" before it's put in its permanent place.

ROCK ISLAND'S ALUMNI who qualified for the "Hall of Fame" are recognized during the half-time of the Rock Island-Moline game.

Charleston Adds New Twist to Rocky Pep

TAKING TIME OUT from the vigorous schedule of the JV squad are from bottom to top juniors Leanna Nelson, Deonna Durkee, Laura Swedberg, Marsha Maurus, and Michelle Demps.

EMOTIONS OF THE senior cheerleaders quickly change from happiness to anxiety to sadness as they give constant encouragement to our varsity team during the Moline game.

Fifteen pert ambassadors of pep led the student body in cheering the Rocks on during the past year. Five cheerleaders were chosen from each class. The varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders were selected by the senate last spring; the sophomores were chosen last fall.

A variety of original and often surprising skits were presented during pep assemblies by the senior pepsters. A spirited Charleston to appeal to both the older and younger fans was performed at home basketball games. The senior five cheered at all varsity football and basketball games.

The JV cheerleaders represented the Rocks at all swimming and wrestling meets as well as the junior varsity football and basketball games.

After a week of mandatory practice, five sophomore girls were chosen to lead the Pebbles at all athletic contests.

LENDING SUPPORT to the Little Rocks throughout the year are the sophomore cheerleaders , Robbie Coatney, Judy Miers, Candy Cheek, Marcia Glassner, and Judy Knox.

VARSITY BASKETBALL PLAYERS are: FRONT ROW: Manager Tom Kaller, Coach Thad Crews, Bernie Teague, Steve Gotthardt, Bruce Woods, Bill Scott, Frank Riley, Don Allbritton, Coach Bob Riley, and Manager Patrick Drake. # Rocks Fail to Jell; Slip to 10-12 Season

After winning their first two outings, the RI 1967-68 basketball squad skidded to a 10-12 season. Finishing under the .500 mark, the team was the first Rocky squad to have a losing season in 20 years. The Rocks, crippled by the graduation of last year's top 8 men, were plagued by inexperience and inconsistency throughout the season. After a fast start against Quincy and West, hopes for a good season soared. Rockford Auburn, however, had other ideas as they downed the Rocks 61-43. This started the Rocks on a four game losing streak that included a 56-54 heartbreaking loss to Alleman. Midway through the season the Rocks were downed by Moline after a fantastic comeback by the fighting Rocks. The Rocks actually had the lead with just seconds to go but Moline was not to be denied the win.

Despite the heartbreaks and disappointments the Rocky cagers were able to boost their spirit in a weekend that included games with the two leading MVC clubs. The Rocks were able to upset East Moline in overtime but the following night the Rocks were brought back to earth as the Dubuque Rams downed the Rocks by a mere two points. Alleman downed the Rocks in the last game of the season, also by 2 points, after the Rocks had made a dazzling comeback. Geneseo stopped the Rocks, 73-48, in the regional to end the Rocks' season.

Pebbles Gain Experience in 5-16 Season

Never able to get on the right track, the RI Sophomore squad skidded to a disappointing 5-16 season. The Pebbles never could find the right combination as they dropped their first four encounters. The Little Rocks were defeated by Quincy, West, Auburn, and East Moline during that stretch. The Sophs then proceeded to down Rockford West handily, 55-39. Three more defeats followed before Iowa City bowed to the Rocks 60-57. Another dry spell set in as the Little Rocks lost five more in a row. At the end of this loss skein the Pebbles put together their biggest win streak of the season—2 games. In these two games the Rocks beat the Dubuque Rams by 32 points, 61-29, and nipped Jefferson, 66-63. The Sophs gained their fifth win by downing an inexperienced all-star team consisting of 9th grade players from the four junior highs. The all-star game was an experiment that provided the Rocky fans an opportunity to see the future sophomore squad in action.

Center Mark Edwards led the Pebbles in scoring and rebounding but Duncan Fallon showed considerable prowess in ball-handling and scoring. Other sophomores who showed good potential were Tom Scott, Lew Miskowitz, and Doug Stelling.

Boys Cop Fall Title;

Under the guidance of Coach Thad Crews, the 1967 boys' golf team captured the fall championship of the Quad-city Conference. This victory was just one of many that the Rocks have won over the past two years. The Rocks won their first District title in history in 1966 and since that time have gained not only prestige but also a second District crown. The second crown came last spring when the team led by seniors Jim Savage, Dick Mosenfelder, and Jeff Murphy completed a very successful season. The '67 title brings the task of making it three in a row to this year's team.

The loss of last year's standouts dimmed the Rocks' hopes to repeat but Coach Crews came up with another winner as his fall squad took the Quad-City crown by 14 strokes over Central. In winning the team title the Rocks showed unusual balance. This balance was exemplified by the fact that only 3.8 strokes separated the top 7 golfers. Bob Bailey, a junior, was medalist on three occasions and averaged 41.2 strokes throughout the season. Steve Forward was next in line with a 41.8 average. Dave Coons, Dave Lofgren, and Tom Chappell each were low for the Rocks on one occasion.

Girls Hope to Repeat

The 1967 girls' golf squad successfully defended their Quad-City Conference Championship in last spring's play. Coach James Johnstone engineered his team, consisting of 8 seniors, 2 juniors, and 2 sophomores, to a 5-2 season record. Sophomore Gail Learner along with seniors Vicki Keith, Debbie Bendt, Robbie Slivken, and Judy Henning led the Rocks to the title losing only to Davenport West in Conference play. The other setback came at the hands of Dubuque, former state champ of Iowa. The match, held at Dubuque, was played in extremely adverse weather which accounted for the high scores on both teams. The Rams ended up 35 strokes ahead and a 424-459 victory. The West High Falcons won by only 8 strokes.

In winning the title the Rocks had little trouble beating Moline twice, 42 and 49 strokes, and Davenport Central, winning by 29 and 17 strokes. Davenport West, besides beating the Rocks, came the closest in a losing cause falling by 14 strokes. The best match was against Central when the Rocks averaged 33+ strokes and a total of 202.

This year's prospects are bright with juniors Gail Learner and Laura Swedberg leading the predominately junior and sophomore squad. Mary Campagna is a leading sophomore golfer.

Distance Runners Outdistance Opposition

The 1967 Fall track team under Coach Howard Lundeen compiled a season's record of 5 wins and 2 defeats. The squad repeated as Quad-City champs and finished third in the Mississippi Valley Conference. The JV Fall track squad went undefeated through 7 meets and also reigned as Quad-City champs. The Sophomore harriers completed the sweep of the Quad-City Conference with a first.

The Cross Country squads also completed fine seasons with both the varsity and JV teams going undefeated and the Sophs losing only one. The varsity squad, composed of ten athletes, finished 2nd in the Quad-City Conference but came through winning the Mississippi Valley title. Coach Lundeen's CC team copped 2nd at district and finished 10th at Champaign in the state meet. The Sophomore Cross Country squad achieved a 3-1 slate in dual competition and finished 2nd in the Quad-City Conference and 3rd in the Valley.

This year's squad consisted of 3 seniors, 6 juniors, and 1 sophomore. Captain Pete Beckman, a senior, held the best time in both the mile and the two-mile.

Rocks Set Three Standards in Spring

The Rock Island Varsity Track team of 1967-68 strove to improve on the '66-67 season when they began their season with indoor track in March. The track team of 1966-67 completed a highly successful season in May when thy finished 16th in state competition. Last year, 150 boys turned out to try their hand at track and field events. Of the 150, seventy boys remained on the squad for the rest of the season. The squad, helped by the early practice, sported an excellent 9-1 dual record with the only loss coming at the hands of the mighty Moline Maroons. The Maroons were powered by their fantastic sprinters, Steve Williams and Curt Anders, as they edged out the Rocks by only 18 points, 110-92.

In indoor dual competition Rocky cindermen handily trounced three of their Quad-City counterparts. The Rocks waltzed by Davenport West by a score of 90-31, while they downed Davenport Central by a count of 77-41. Their third victory in indoor competition came against the East Moline Panthers by a 79-33 score.

In outdoor track meets the Rocks compiled a 6-1 record registering two massive victories. The first came against Alleman by a score of 159-40; while the second came against Davenport West when the Rocks scored an impressive win by a 152-50 margin. Their other victories, however, were much harder to come by as some went down to the final event.

The Rocks battled to a second place finish in the Mississippi Valley Conference Indoor meet, a third in District competition, and a 16th place finish at state. The Rocks ended their spring season with the Mississippi Valley Outdoor meet in which they finished third.

Three new school records were set during the season. Rich Hansen smashed the 880 yd. run record by 3 seconds in a time of 1:53.9. Bob Sager raised the shot record by some 5 inches. The third was set by Don Allbritton as he pole vaulted 14'¼" to best his own record.

Rock Island High School produced one of the finest sophomore track teams in recent years. Coach lundeen's sophomore squad compiled an impressive 6-1 dual meet record. Excellent depth and several star performers enabled the Pebbles to snare the sophomore Quad-City championship. The Little Rocks also were able to capture the Mississippi Valley championship, which is possibly some of the toughest competition found in the Midwest.

Outstanding sophomore trackmen, who on several occasions helped the Varsity squad, were Kevin O'Hern and Larry Begyn, distance runners; Frank Riley, who backed up Don Allbritton and Mike Chaney in the pole vault; Marc Gilliam, sprinter; and Ken Johnson, high and low hurdles. These athletes and many other Sophs will help the varsity squad in the upcoming season.

Single Letterman Leads Rocks in Baseball

With only one returning letterman from last year's squad coming back, Coach Carl Aronson spent most of March working on an entirely new lineup for the 1968 baseball season. Last year's team consisted of almost all seniors. Dave Howell was the only underclassman to receive a major letter and Coaches Aronson and Jerry Janecke hope that he will be able to lead this year's inexperienced club. Other team members that the coaches are relying on are seniors Dennis Cromer, Paul Meincke, Mike Day, Mike Brown, and Greg Langston. Cliff Nice appears to be the most promising junior candidate for a starting berth on this year's starting nine. Due to the unseasonally nice weather the Rocks have been able to utilize the outdoor facilities instead of the usually used balcony in the boys' gym.

Last spring the Rocks experienced an up-down season and ended their schedule with a below .500 mark. Tom Messmer and Larry Milligan shared mound chores throughout most of the season and both demonstrated fine stuff. Jim Knox, Rich Louck, Bob Bevans, and Terry Denoma led the Rocks at the plate.

FORMING THE NUCLEUS for this year's squad are seniors Dennis Cromer, Mike Day, Greg Langston, Dave Howell, and Mike Brown.

DEFENSE IS THE name of the game, and here members of the squad practice the finer points in fielding.

JIM BELL IS caught all alone under the basket on defense as 4 members of Dave Rockwell's squad muscle their way in for a basket.

C. J. Johnstone's intraumral program attracted a record number of 300 participants this year. The same program, established last year, included water polo, touch football, basketball, bowling, table tennis, volleyball, fencing, softball, and archery. The varied intramural schedule was open to any boy who wished to take part. Improvements, added by Coach Johnstone, included the issuing of intramural certificates to all participants and the awarding of a felt intramural championship patches to all winners of either individual or team sports.

The basketball schedule, which dominated intramural action, had games scheduled for three months. For the first time, the teams were grouped into sophomore, junior, and senior leagues.

In senior action, regular season play was coupled with a single elimination tournament. Of the eight teams which participated in the senior loop, Glenn Hunter's team won the regular season play championship. Kent Sackfield's team and Bob Willhite, Randy Wiese, George Hoane, Kirk Swanson, and Norm Anderson won the single elimination play-off.

Intramural bowling rolled off to a fine start and had keen competition throughout the season. Randy McKee topped off competitors with his high series mark and Jess Hansen had the high individual game.

Competition Keen in Intramural Program

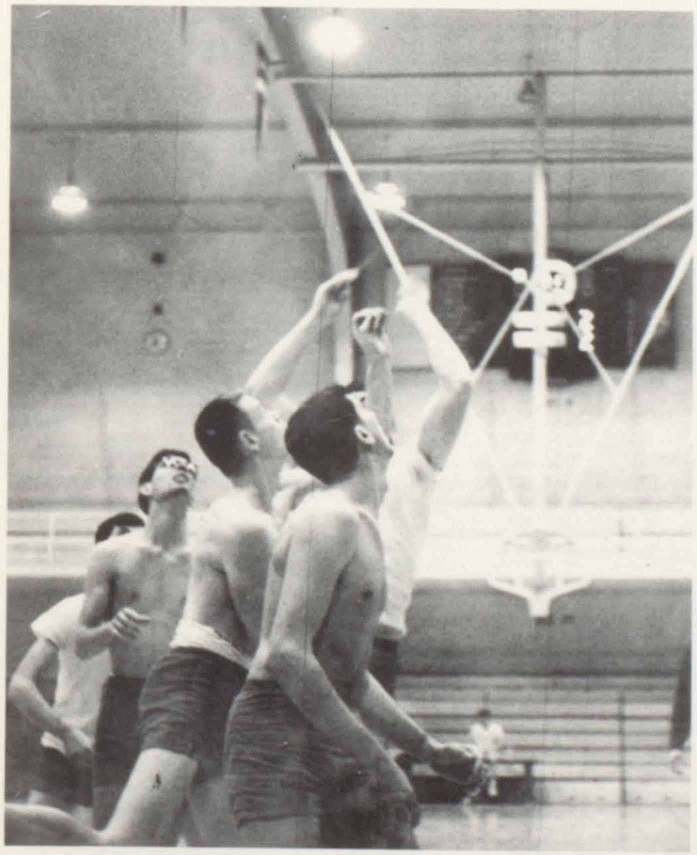
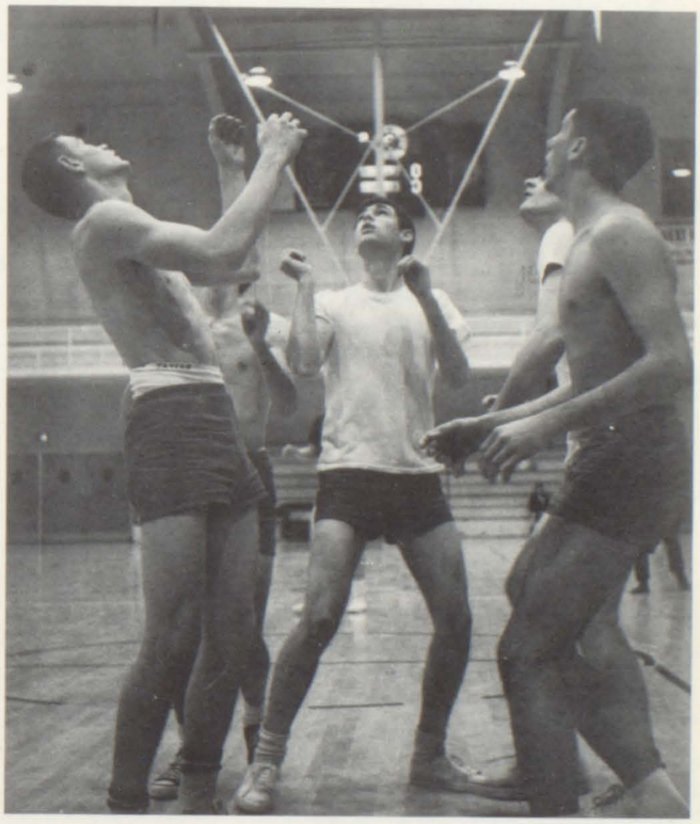
MEMBERS OF THE championship team of regular season play in senior intramural basketball are, FRONT ROW, Dave Lofgren, Glenn Hunter. BACK ROW, Steve Saunders, John Mordhorst, and Steve Forward.

GLENN CRAMER OF Jim Bell's senior intramural basketball squad guns from the corner.



SEVERAL PARTICIPANTS IN intramural basketball are shown as they prepare to battle for a rebound.



RANDY WIESE, SURROUNDED by the opposition, hopes to snatch an important rebound. Wiese is a member of Kent Sackfield's team which swept through tournament action to take first place in senior B-Ball.

Acknowledgements . . .

With "expansion" as our theme, new developments of and in Rocky High School were highlighted by 1968 WATCHTOWER. Where new buildings were constructed, while old ones were brought down; where new faculty, teaching equipment, and new methods of teaching were introduced; where new activities were initiated into school life; where old clubs were disbanded, and new organizations were formed ... WATCHTOWER was there.

Our most sincere thanks is extended to Mr. Ted Hains and his assistant with whom we worked closely in posing and snapping pictures. Their benevolent cooperation and concern for the quality of pictures in the WATCHTOWER was our yearbook's greatest asset. The 1968 WATCHTOWER staff is also grateful to the many other firms and individuals who helped in editing this yearbook. A special thanks goes to Kathy Kepes who not only fulfilled the role of assistant editor but also served as staff photographer —alleviating the worries of last-minute pictures. We would also like to recognize Camera Club's contribution to the WATCHTOWER.

Our goal was to capture, in pictures and copy, all of the important changes in Rocky's status quo, as well as a variety of everyday occurrences. But to completely capture and isolate "expansion" in a book, on a page, in a picture, or in a sentence is impossible, for expansion of comprehension and knowledge cannot be seen until it is later put to use to build a better tomorrow. "Expansion" is unending, and so progress is unending, and opportunities in the future are unending.

The 1968 WATCHTOWER is the sum of our yesterdays—a brief resume of our high school years of expansion. The yearbook comes to a close, but the theme stays with us . . .

TWO BUDDING PHOTOGRAPHERS—Ron Chappell, Hains Studio, and Kathy Kepes, WATCHTOWER—are caught on the other side of the lens.
